Coal Country Coyote Challenge

December 3rd, 4th, 5th, 2009

Dakota Farms Inn, Beulah N.D.

Rules

1. Entry will be limited to 50 two-man teams. Entry fee shall be $200 per team. (90% pay back) $5,000 guaranteed 1st prize(based on 30 teams minimum, if there is not 30 teams payout will be 1st 30% 2nd 25%, 3rd, 20%, 4th, 15%, 5th, 10%)
2. Largest coyote ($25) and smallest coyote ($25) weights will be taken at check in. (100% payback). Cash paid each night for largest and smallest coyote shot that day.
3. Seminars will be held Friday and Saturday at 7:30 pm. ALL TIMES ARE MOUNTAIN TIME
4. Coyotes must be taken at least 50 ft. from any vehicle.
5. Use of ATV's and/or snowmobiles the day of the tournament to locate, chase, and/or shoot coyotes is prohibited.
6. Use of an airplane, helicopter, Para plane, and/or ultra light to locate coyotes will not be allowed. Use by either a team or by someone on behalf of a tournament participant will result in immediate removal from the tournament and will be banned from all future tournaments.
7. Coyotes can be taken with any center fire, rim fire, or bow. NO SHOTGUNS
8. No more than two persons per team. One vehicle only.
9. Core temperatures will be taken from all coyotes at check-in. Coyotes will be disallowed if temperature and time do not match.
10. The day of the tournament blocks will be distributed at the morning check-in and placed in each coyote's mouth immediately upon retrieval. The block must have the team number and time of day marked clearly on the tag. Bands will be provided to place around the coyote's mouth (top & bottom) to secure the block. THE BLOCK MUST BE FILLED OUT COMPLETELY AND BANDED IN THE COYOTES MOUTH. ANY COYOTE TURNED IN WITHOUT A PROPERLY FILLED OUT BLOCK (SEQUENCE NUMBER, TEMPERATURE, AND TEAM NUMBER) BANDED IN THE COYOTES MOUTH WILL BE DISALLOWED. Coyotes must be exposed to the outdoors, belly up, side by side. Coyotes cannot be placed in plastic bags, enclosed boxes, or stored inside a vehicle. This makes it impossible to get consistent core temps if these standards are not followed by everyone. NO EXEPTIONS.
11. We will be picking 5 teams at random by number to be mediators, with 5 additional teams as alternates prior to the start of the tournament. In the case a team with any coyotes that are disqualified during the check-ins, the team/s with the rule infraction will have an opportunity—after check-in on Saturday—to request a review by their peers. The review will be of the facts as they pertain to the coyotes in question. One member of each of the five teams will have a vote, and the majority vote will be the final ruling. The team that requests the review will have to pay an additional $75 upon that request. This $75 will be refunded back in the event the ruling in question is overturned, If the ruling stands, the $75 will be forfeited by the team who requested the review. This is not an opportunity to re-write rules, but an opportunity to an impartial review of the facts.
12. All applicable licenses must be in your possession at time of tournament. If you are hunting without a state furbearers license or applicable tribal license, local authorities may be notified and you will be disqualified from the tournament.
13. All entrants must be present and available to answer questions at both morning and evening check-ins.
14. No live decoys and /or dogs. (No running coyotes with dogs.)
15. No baiting.
16. All ties will be broken by check-in times of 2nd day.
17. Mouth call, hand calls and electronic calls can be used.
18. No pooling of coyotes between teams.

19. Check-in times are strongly enforced and it is the participant's responsibility to get with a tournament official to log your check-in time. 1st day (5:00am–6:00pm), 2nd day (5:00am– 6:00pm) (Mountain time) vehicle description and license no. required at morning check in.
20. You have to locate and call your own coyotes. You cannot have a second team or individual out scouting for you.
21. All coyotes that are checked in will be inspected and will be donated to the tournament. This is to help cover the costs of the event.
22. Sportsmanship. Any team—upon the sole discretion of the tournament director—that shows a lack of consideration for other teams, the rules, or is just being an all-around asshole, will be refunded their entry fee and asked to leave. If it is determined that any team or team member who—in the past—has a history of questionable actions, coyotes, behavior, etc., that is deemed detrimental to the enjoyment of the tournament by others, they will be banned from entering the tournament. Tournament committee has the right to conduct a polygraph test on any contestant .
23. The rules are set out for the benefit of all participants to ensure everyone has equal opportunity for a great hunt and a chance at winning the tournament. Each coyote will be examined at check in, and all rules will be strongly enforced. Core temperatures, time of kill, and sequence will be checked on all coyotes checked-in. Properly filled out blocks are imperative. We will have a large pool of coyotes to compare temperatures and times with- you should expect your coyotes to fall within those ranges. If you check in a coyote that does not fall within those ranges, the tournament officials will have sole discretion of disallowing the coyote in question. Violating the tournament rules or the laws of the state can lead to that team's removal from the tournament and depending on the situation; the local authorities may be notified. If you have a snowmobile and are considering entering the tournament just to run the coyotes down, I would suggest you do not spend your money on the entry fee. There are several tournaments available to hunt in that do not have rules and/or do not enforce the ones that they do have. This is not one of those tournaments. Trapping, snaring, live trapping, shooting coyotes the night before, shooting them from a vehicle, having another team or individual locating coyotes, or trying to take a coyote in any way that would jeopardize the integrity of the tournament will not be tolerated and you will be removed from the tournament immediately. Anything questionable will be up to the discretion of the tournament official to determine if a coyote will be allowed or disallowed. It is the burden of the tournament participant to follow the rules and to turn in coyotes that do not appear to be taken outside of what is allowed by the rules. Meaning, that if your team turns in 4 coyotes that two of them are blocked incorrectly based on times and temps. The ones in question will be disallowed. If you turn in coyotes that are all shot in the hind quarters with a shot gun, with dry bladders and empty colon, you may have a problem convincing anyone they were taken legally. The tournament officials do not need to see you in the act, and explaining what happened will not help if every indication points towards you running them down with a snowmobile. I would rather have one team mad because of an honest mistake than all the other teams upset because I did not enforce what would appear to be an obvious rule infraction. The burden is on the hunter to prove that the coyote was taken as per tournament rules- not the officials.

If you would like to spend the weekend talking with coyote hunters and hunting coyotes with a chance at winning some gas money for more hunts, we would love to see you at the tournament.

By signing this you release all organizers and BCC from any liability

Please sign that you have read the rules and understand them. At least one member of each team must sign prior to receiving blocks.
